Spring time is a time for new beginnings, this year especially in the Frazier household. Micaila and I have been doing our best to prepare for the arrival of our little girl. That is also why you are probably receiving this letter a little earlier than you normally would. On March 23rd Micaila will be induced at the hospital. She has been suffering from severe hip pain from a horse accident a few years ago. It has not improved with traditional/alternative medicine, physical therapy or rest/time to heal. Her back surgeon wants to pursue additional imaging to diagnose where the pain is coming from and rule out more surgery. Because of being pregnant, they cannot do an MRI/CT on her, so at the recommendation of her OB doctor we have decided to induce a week early. Please pray for my bride. She needs strength and peace that only God can give her. Please also keep our little girl in your prayers for a healthy and smooth delivery. Thank you.

Last week I had the opportunity to have a young man “work off” some community service hours at Camp. It was good having someone new see the facility and lend a hand on some cleanup projects. We moved old hay out of the barn at camp and cleaned up multiple piles of debris to go into our burn pile. As we rode in the vehicle, we were able to get to know one another. I pray that God continues to give opportunities to impact this young man.

The above account is just one of the many ways that God has given us opportunities to serve the community around us. We ask monthly for you to pray for those opportunities to present themselves, thank you for your prayers. Although by most accounts we live in a rural and desolate (though we don't think so) part of the United States, there are people here who need to hear about the hope found in Christ. As always, please keep us in your prayers – that our hearts and eyes would be wide open to the opportunities God puts in front of us to “be Jesus with skin on”.

Satan is crafty and there have been many different things over the years that he has used to distract me from what God has for me. He has used people, money, things and situations to dampen my effect for Christ. Lately as I have been getting into God's Word it has turned my heart further toward Christ than I think has happened in the past. As I listen to the radio, current events, myself and others talk I see how sinful of a people we truly are. I see my own depravity laid before me like never before. I am listening hard to the “small, still” voice of my Savior and what HE has to say. This world has so many “right now” pleasures that it offers, but God offers a peace and satisfaction that nothing else can match! Solomon, a man who had everything, says in Ecclesiastes that “things are vanity and a chasing after the wind...”. I can't encourage you enough to follow Christ with all you are and have!

Matthew 10:39 “He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it”. Lose yourself to the Savior. He won't let you down!

Serving Christ together,

Mike & Micaila
